P. P. MAUÁ & Co.,
Dec. 1, 1864. WILLIAM LESLIE.

MAUA BANK,

CALLE CANGALLO, Nos 101—103

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of cheques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a. m. till 4 p.m.

P. P. MAUÁ & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (42 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £ 03 000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £360,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1863 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £840,000 is real and substantial property: the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 11 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

CICERO.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1864.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The National Government, we understand has countermanded the departure of the troops for the frontier; the Legion Militar, which was to have left for the camp yesterday, will therefore remain in town.

The steamer Salto will leave to-morrow for Paraguay. Parties who wish to correspond with their friends in Asuncion had better not lose this chance, as owing to the rupture with Brazil, it is impossible to say when we will see any of the Paraguayan steamers again.

A most extraordinary rumor was current through town yesterday to the effect that some parties in Rosario had conspired to sieze the steamers Pavon and Hercules, and run away with them. We give the rumor for what it is worth, but question very much its exactness.

A native gentleman who arrived from Corrientes in the Esmeralda on Saturday, has brought down a wolf from the Gran Chaco, which he intends to present to the English Minister for the Royal Zoological Gardens, Loudon.

Beron, who it was said was enlisting men in Entre Rios to join the Paraguayans, is lying sick at Paraná, and utteriy incapable of mounting a horse or fighting the Brazilians.

We learn on the highest authority that the report that Leandro Gomez had killed the officer whom Flores despatched with a summons to surrender, is utterly destitute of truth. The gentleman who informed us arrived yesterday from the Uruguay, and although a decided colorado, is a lover of truth.

The saladeristos up the rivers are all commenced or about to commence working. Cattle are cheap and in good condition. About twenty saladeros will be the number working in the rivers this season: there are a few more but it is believed they will not work until affairs are more settled.

The Paraguayan Government has purchased all the jerked beef on hand in Corrientes, but passengers who have come down from there state that the general feeling is that Paraguay will not invade, or move, unless forced to do so. The Paraguayan agent has returned from Asuncion and resumed his post in Corrientes.

We have to thank an English subscriber in Salto for an interesting description of the fall and capture of that thriving town. Owing to press of matter we are obliged to hold it over until to-morrow.

The Estrella del Norte is due this morning from San Pedro; we don't suppose she will bring anyvery stirring news, but some of the excursionists are anxiously looked for.

The Government has named committees in all the country towns to enroll the names of the voters; as few of our readers enjoy the privilege of voting, we think it unnecessary to fill our columns up with the list.

Another case of justifiable homicide has occurred—an Italian confitero in the Guardia del Monte, a man of position and respectability, was attacked in his own house by a peon who attempted to stab him. The Italian felled the fellow with a blow which killed him, the police then came in and walked the Italian off to prison. He was sent to Mercedes to be tried and there he lies, probably to be incarcerated like poor Flower. We think where the facts of the case are notorious, and no question exists as to the man defending his own life against the onslaught of a would-be murderer, the justice of the peace should be empowered to let the man out on bail till tried.

President Mitre has sent an order up to Admiral Murature to forward to Buenos Ayres Mr. Palomaque and friends. It is rumored by one of our colleagues that this heroic defender of Salto will immediately leave for France.

Mr. Washburn's note to the Paraguay Minister in reference to the attitude of Paraguay in the Oriental question, has caused quite a stir in the Government House. The cabinet are apparently astonished that President Lincoln would side with Paraguay, but the American Minister's note is most explicit and shews that the Argentine Government is getting on the wrong side.

"Erin's last letter on Cordova we commend to our readers; it will be found very interesting. We are sorry to say that this far-famed correspondent of the "Standard" leaves for Europe in the French packet. We wish him a pleasant voyage. His remarks about the antipathy of the provincials to the National Government is significant and not at all exaggerated.

The news from the San Juan gold diggings is a confirmation of previous advices. The gold fever is extending, and everyone is most sanguine as to the result. No gold, however, has come down, but some half-dozen Englishmen had arrived up, and were starting for the diggings when the diligence left.

The unfortunate steamer, Marques de Olinde, should have arrived down yesterday; "quien sabe" when we will see her again. Mr. Stevens, the engineer, had promised to bring us down a bale of the wild cotton growing spontaneously in the valleys of Matto Grosso, but now of course it is out of the question. Things are frightfully out of joint in the River Plate.

The strawberries are so abunbant in Montevideo that they are exporting them to this city. The Sanitary Committee of this city had a meeting last week, and decided that strawberries were not dangerous and might be eaten moderately. They are considered to be better at breakfast than at dinner.

A subscriber from the camp informs us that in the South it is generally believed the Government is about to take up horses and men; the latter are more numerous than the former. Out in the camp the Brazilians are greatly disliked, and President Mitre has lost his former popularity amongst this class of his fellow-citzizens. If he called for soldiers to help the Brazilians, people say he would not get even a black man to help him, whereas if he stood forward to oppose Brazil and turn the Brazilians out of the Banda Oriental, the whole country would be with him.

The Provincial Government is at present busy making up the new list of justices of the peace for the country. We are happy to say that the Minister is taking unusual care this year that none save the most respectable and efficient be named.

On Thursday there will be a grand funcion in the Villa Luxan, it being the patron saint's day. General Paunero, we hear, sends out the music. The Government has reduced the train fares to one-half. 'Sortija' and 'carne con cuero' in the Plaza, and rockets, bright, glaring rockets, that can be seen in Paraguay at night.

The news from Peru by this mail is rather stirring; it will be found in another column. The Peruvians are preparing to depart from the state of chrysalis which they have been in since the seizure of the Chincha Islands. They have sweeping odds, and if they do not drown Pinzon and his vessels in the Pacific, we know not what to think of Peruvian valour and courage.

Yesterday the on dit was that three Brazilian gunboats were ordered up to the Tres Bocas. We can only say that such a step would be most injudicious, as the probabilities are they would be captured or sunk before aid could be sent to them. Our colleagues seem to think that the present sad state of affairs is momentary, and that fighting with Paraguay is child's play. In Asuncion there are exact plans of Martin Garcia, and every town in the river; and, if we are to have a row with Paraguay, we give President Mitre a friendly hint to fortify Rosario, Parana, and the other towns.

APPROACHING DANGERS.

Any man who would attempt to prove that Argentines keep a President and five grand ministers of state, solely for the purpose of regenerating the neighbours and re-modeling their governments, would be at once put down as a fool; but fools sometimes speak the truth, and with the Oriental and Paraguayan questions on our hands, there is great room for such a foolish supposition.

The present state of affairs in the River Plate could not be worse, and it is in vain that our political colleague try to ridicule danger, or disguise alarm: popular indignation will yet find vent, for here, as in Europe, the idlest task of a journalist, is to attempt to make the whispering of faction prevail over the unanimous voice of the people.

It is a mistake to suppose that the guns of the Tacuari were only heard on the shores of the Gran Chaco, or in the lonely regions of the Upper Paraguay, they have echoed from the Andes to the Atlantic; and, if they brought to, the Brazilian steamer, Marquis de Olinda, and made her change her course, so also have they warned the helmsman of the great Argentine vessel that it is time to tack.

It is difficult to offer any remarks on the present state of affairs, or even to make a fair impartial statement of facts, without either annoying the Government or exciting alarm, both of which we wish to avoid; still it is essential that our readers should be fully acquainted with the dangers which at present surround us.

The feeling of the people in Corrientes and Entre Rios is not generally known here, nor the attitude which some of the military men will take on the present question; on last Saturday it was rumored that Placido Lopez and others were gathering men, and some went so far as to say that Urquiza was conniving at it. Such is however not the case. Caseres, who is one of the most influential men in Corrientes is steadily attached to the National Government; and Reguera, who is another influential officer, is at present at Bella Visita, and disclaims all wish to create a disturbance. Governer Lagraña has we understand been requested to give permission to the Paraguayan Generals to pass two armies through his territory, but he is a sound practical man, and it is not to be supposed that unless forced to comply he will accede to a request which is calculated to augment our present difficulties. We have therefore in favor of the present Government not only the popular feeling in Corrientes, but also some of the most influential men in the riverine provinces.

In Entre Rios we find much more cause for alarm than elsewhere. Still, on a calm survey of the matter, we believe that neither will Urquiza be hurried into an indiscretion, nor will the people be deluded into a rebellion which can only terminate in disaster. Granted that Urquiza rebels. Granted even that he marches his legions into Corrientes and overturns the present Government; that he then crosses into the Banda Oriental with the Paraguayans, and drives Flores and the Brazilians out of the country. In the end, what has he, what has Entre Rios gained? Far more probable is it, that a man possessed of such immense wealth as Urquiza will remain quiet, and rather assist than oppose the Argentine Government in the present critical position.

There is a general desire in Buenos Ayres that President Mitre should adhere more than ever to his non-intervention policy; but we are forced to say it, we think the future of the country depends more on the policy of General Urquiza than of President Mitre.

Time was when the influence of the President of the Republic was supreme but democratic apathy, if it has not done its worst, has at least succeeded in getting this country into a most embarrassing position, and robbed the Executive of the influence and power essential to all Governments.

Flores has been the cause of all the complications. His revolution, no matter how excusable, was impolitic. He should have been put down, and for the last twelve months, instead of receiving symyathy and support from Buenos Ayres, should have been anathematized by every peaceable citizen. If he gets into Montevideo within a week, there is still some hope that we may escape the horrors of a civil war; but if we are to have the Brazilans in the rivers, Paraguay blockaded and Flores flying about the Banda Oriental for another six months, we want no Cassandra to foretell the grand sequel.

"ERIN'S" NOTES ON CORDOVA.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 4, 1864.

Dear Editors,—

I must write you a very dry letter this time, if you have space for such. I know that many of your readers like to hear plain facts in plain English.

The 30,000 inhabitants of Cordova may be divided thus: Italians, German, French about 10,000 in equal proportions, two Englishmen, one American, Africans and their descent, 8,000, and of Spanish blood, 12,000. There are but two hotels in the town, capable, between them, to find sleeping accommodations for sixty persons, but both having excellent table d'hotes, where all the unmarried gentlemen of the town "feed." The charge for board and lodging is one and a half Bolivian dollars, equal to 32 paper dollars, but I would not advise any one to take such rubbish there; I really think you would find yourself inside the policia if you offered payment with them. On the other side of the question, there must be a regular base coin mint some where in the provinces, for in changing an ounce you are sure to get from three to six bad half-dollars. I was treated to about twenty of them during my stay—a stranger is looked on as fair game to give them to, and I will defy him to know the bad from the good. On one occasion I made a small purchase, and I took six, one after the other, out of my pocket before the shopkeeper was satisfied it was a good one. He laughed much at me as he said "estranjero," though I did not see the joke. There is not a bank as yet in the town, though Mauá is going there soon; all payments to Rosario or Buenos Ayres are made in gold or silver sent by the diligence or bullock carts, but few commercial bills are drawn. On the last raid of the Indians, (about which more in my next letter), a merchant in Cordova lost in goods and cash to the amount of one hundred thousand patacons. There is no insurance office in the town. There are two fine large market places, walled in all round, with two gates, and arcades round the interior, under which all sorts of market goods are exposed for sale, the interior space being about five acres, and filled up with rows of carts from the provinces, north and west, laden with all sorts of produce, from an orange, to wine, copper, wool, hides, etc., but I could not hear they had ever brought any San Juan silver, but brass, that is to say old brass, at times they had brought from thence, but there was not much sale for this article in Cordova. The produce buyers run about the carts like madmen, and not unfrequently get what the lawyers call a refresher from the horns of some hungry, angry bullock. The trade of the provinces is large, and Cordova is the depot of it. Most of the goods are bought up there and sent down to Rosario and Buenos Ayres in a different set of carts on Cordova buyers, account. As for the weight of goods at present passing from Cordova to Rosario, the outside I can state it is, either by diligence or the bullock carts, six thousand tons; from Rosario to Cordova, three thousand tons, and passengers from both ways taken together, about six thousand. The railway will have to use the magician's wand to make its vast length pay the Government guarantee. I think there is not any manufactory in the town. Boots are made in large numbers and are very cheap, but bad. There has been a large steam mill built, but the owner over built his means and the concern is bankrupt, and lays idle. Of monks, doctors of law and physic, not forgetting chemists, there are more than enough.

I am sorry to be obliged to tell you that many persons preach against the railway as an invention of the evil one, to bring all sorts of immoral characters to disturb the tranquil rest of Cordoba—morality I fear is not so much studied in the town as it ought to be, it was even urged that in a few years a theatre or an opera company would be found in the town. Market prices of articles—beef and mutton about three farthings a pound, flour and bread half the price of Buenos Ayres: tobacco and yerba one third less than here; vegetables, potatoes, fruit, half the price; fowls and eggs (fresh) one third the price here; wood almost for nothing, house rent for a moderate family (gentleman's) can be had for an ounce a month, say a dozen rooms, wells, &c.; horse-keep one-third of here, alfalfa being cheap, In the forest grows, on trees of the acacia species, a large pod containing beans, both the pod and the beans containing much saccharine matter, and the horse likes it better than maize, it costs but little—it grows in the wild forest waiting for the use of man, it is very nourishing, and costs in Cordova about the value of ten paper dollars the fanega of say 278 lbs; wages per month for a hard-working man equal to 160 paper dollars, women servants in proportion; every European article to eat, drink, clothes, hardware, &c., 30 per cent dearer than in Buenos Ayres. Avery body, from the wholesale merchant downwards, is poor; a merchant would be thought a very rich man if he was considered to be £15,000 to £20,000 above his liabilities.

The Government is very poor: pay of all kinds is much behind, always excepting the pay of those who belong to the ruling powers; for the rest the word is, 'get it when you can.' The feeling of the whole of the people of the upper provinces is intense hatred against the Federal Government of Buenos Ayres; and depend upon it, dear Editors. that soon they will show it openly, and not without cause. My next letter, in which I will attempt to describe some of the atrocities of the Indians near Frayle Muerte, will explain something of the cause of this hatred. I have been asked within the last few days, by young men from England, whether it would be well for them to go to Cordova or other of the upper provinces, to seek for situations as clerks, &c., and I explained to them that there are not any English merchants doing a large business in the upper provinces, and that the whole trade is in the hands of the sons of the country, that naturally to their poor young relatives they gave any situations that would support life respectably. 'Standard,' try again to stop the young clerk with the ring and Albert chain, and £10 in his pocket, from coming out. What a fearful future now dawns on South America. A wise head and a strong hand will be wanted to steer the barque of the Republic through the approaching tempest.

Yours,
"ERIN."

P.S. Cordova city I have done with you. Of the return trip to Rosario, by the southern route, I will write of camps, rivers, sheep, Indians, and the d——l knows what else.

LATEST FROM PARANA

Parana, Nov. 30, 1864.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

For some time before the 22nd of this month we had most oppressively hot weather, the thermometer 97° in the shade; on the 22nd we had a sudden change of temperature, variation from 97° to 95°, being a difference of 42°. How strange such a sudden transition would appear in Carlow, being equal to a variation of from 72° to freezing point, and how detrimental it would be—in all the country districts here where sheep have been weak and thin, and particularly amongst the coarse class, great losses have been sustained.

The wheat crop this year is more than an abundant one; the 'manadas' of mares and labourers for the threshing floor are in great requisition. The maize crop is again looking fresh after the last rain. Estancieros complain bitterly of the fly in all classes of animals. It has rained again moderately on the 28th, and the temperature has been cooled since the great storm: cattle are fat and abound.

Yours truly,
ROYAL OAK.

COLON THEATRE.

On Sunday night the juvenile performers made their debut. The house was crowded from the cazuela to the pit. The boxes were all filled, and we noticed that notwithstanding the bad news from Paraguay, his Excellency the President, and family were there. The performance of the children excited the most enthusiastic applause. Their acting could not be surpassed, and the leading character, which was rather an old boy, was inimitable. But by far the most attractive part was the 'ballet,' in which the girlish 'prima donna' was a rising 'Cerito.' The performance was one of the most successful ever given in Buenos Ayres.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM PERU.

From the Chilian paper just received by the Esmeralda we learn that the Peruvian squadron was shortly expected to engage the enemy's fleet.

The relative forces are stated to be as follows: Spanish—four vessels 90 guns and 1200; Peruvian—seven vessels 112 guns, and 2000 men.

The minister have been warmly interogated in the Chambers without any definite reply being elicited, with reference to the conference which had taken place between the Minister for Foreign Affairs and the representatives of the other South American Republics. We read in the 'Tiempo' of Lima:—"Since writing the foregoing we have been assured that in to-day's conference the Spanish question has been unreservedly discussed, and that we may with certainty calculate upon the moral and material assistance of the neighbouring Republics. We fervently hope that it may be so, and that we are at length on the eve of important events towards vindicating our national honor."

A project of law, signed by 50 Deputies, had been presented to the Congress, authorising the Executive Power declare war against Spain, and to take the necessary steps towards repossessing the Clincha Islands.

Mr. Sarmiento was received by the President and Ministers, and in his address to the former expressed a hope that the "illustrious public of Peru would justify the hopes entertained by their friends that, in a question involving such important interests, they would overcome individual passions or feelings and exhibit a dignified spirit of calmness in the defence of their rights.

The "Ferro-Carril" publishes the following letter from the commander of the Peruvion squadron:—

On boord the Ucajali,
Callao, October 30th. 1864.

My dear Sir,—

After so much procrastination, and the loss of so much valuable time, after having seen months, days and hours pass away in inactivity, and with them the chances of success against the enemy, (Pinzon), it now seems as if, at the eleventh hour, the Government has determined to attack the Spanish forces, at least I am thus given to understand by influential persons. I trust in God it may not be another subterfuge to lull the public spirit, which is fast approaching a revolution, with a view of terminating a course of political action which smacks more of treason than patriotism.

The opposition to the President and Government continue unabated.

LATEST FROM THE URUGUAY.

Yesterday the steamer arrived, bringing the news that Flores was before Paysandu, and had sent an officer to Leandro Gomez, giving him twenty-four hours to surrender.

It is rumoured by some that the Brazilians landed 400 men from the gunboats to assist in the attack, but there is no means of authenticating this, and as the gunboats in the river only have about fifty men each, it is extremely improbable.

Leandro Gomez had swept 2,000 head of horned cattle from a neighbouring estancia, and prepared to make a determined stand.

The gunboats of the Brazilians were, it is said, preparing to bombard, but owing to their distance from the town we question if they will cause much damage.

Saa and Piris were closing round on Flores. If Leandro Gomez stands firm, possibly an end, one way or the other, will be put to this lamentable revolution before the little town of Paysandu.

LATEST FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 8, 1864.

The last month has been an unusually dull one. The continued successes of the Government against the rebels has the tendency to bring down the premium on gold, and with this decline, prices of merchandise naturally fall, buyers consequently are very cautious in their purchases. Very few large transactions have taken place, and until there is an apparent fixed rate for gold, there will not be much courage to operate freely. The financial troubles in England will, in all probability, oblige houses here in connection with English houses, to make as large remittances as possible, and to do this some merchandize will be forced on the market, which has been kept in store for better prices.

The Secretary of the Treasury advertised for a loan of $31,000,000 six per cent. Bonds, interest and principal payed in gold in 1881; more than $70,000,000 was subscribed, at from par to 10 per cent. premium, and the amount of the loan was awarded at a trifle over 4 per cent premium and upwards. Subscriptions at par are daily made to a large amount for the 10-40 years, 5 per cent. Gold Bonds, and 7 3-10 per cent. 3 years Currency Bonds optional to convert at maturity into 6 per cent. Gold Bonds.

The "military situation" is more satisfactory, and the months of August and September have given the Government forces splendid victories. We first had news of the capture, by Admiral Farragut, of Forts Powell, Gaines and Morgan, in Mobile Bay, leaving the way open for a successful attack on Mobile, next, the taking of Atlanta by General Sherman and pursuit of General Hood's army, and on the 19th inst. the defeat of the rebel General Early by General Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley, leaving his dead and wounded in his hands and the taking of 7,500 prisoners with cannon, &c. General Grant is steadily pressing General Lee, and will either force him to evacuate Richmond, or offer battle, which it is rumoured may take place very soon. Our Generals are using the very best, and only effective means for a "cessation of hostilities," which is, by destroying the rebel armies. There can be no permanent peace to the country in any other way, as two governments could not exist here without being perpetually at war.

The news from the Uruguay and Rosario caused a great stir on 'Change; the bulls and bears wore sanguine as to the effect, but they were both deceived; specie fluctuated but little, and few operations of importance were entered into.

The National bonds evince the effects of present political complications; they are extremely weak, and a sale on time was effected to-day, 15,000 deliverable in two months at 39.

Mr. Rom in his weekly review censures us for accusing the bank of buying gold and selling exchange, and on the authority of the President of the Bank contradicts our assertion that the specie vales of the Bank represent more than the gold in its vaults. As the bank does not publish a statement of the amount of these certificates in circulation, and as it is impossible for us to know the number they represent, we made the remark in consequence of the bank drawing by last packet at 49, for if the object was merely to sustain the rate of exchange and not to obtain specie, the Bank we apprehend should not have drawn at a farthing under the market rate.

The wool markets are very depressed. In the South Plaza no sales of importance were effected, and in the North Plaza most of the wool is going into deposit, the buyers evincing no anxiety to purchase until the arrival of the packet, except at prices which farmers refuse to accept. Paper money is inconveniently tight and this sensibly affects the price of wool.

In exchange a few bills were pssed to-day at 49½; the Provincial Bank will not draw this packet.

TOBACCO de la PALMA,
Derives its name from the circumstance of "the secret of its preparation" having been first revealed to a lone traveller, by an Indian, while reclining at the foot of three palm trees, resting from the fatigue of a hard day's ride
It is an article entirely different from any other in present use, and solely manufactured by the undersigned at their Steam Tobacco Factory.
Containing no Paraguay Tobacco it is free from that peculiar bitterness usually contained in Tobacco heretofore manufactured in this country for "pipe" use, while its strength is comparable with that of the American Tobacco.
Being nicely cut, it prevents this unnecessary trouble to the consumer, and packed in "tins," of convenient size with adjustable covers, there is less to fear from drying than with other Tobaccos.
Owing to the high price of American Tobacco we consider this as an excellent substitute, and would particularly call the attention of those residing in the camp to the economy and advantage to be derived in the purchase of this article.
In consequence of the numerous applications made for this Tobacco, in "packages," the manufacturers have concluded arrangements whereby, in the future, they will be able to dispatch packages of 1 lb. each.
At the manufactory will also be found Tobacco-fuerte-colorado picado para cigarillos, nicely enclosed in packages of ½ lb. each; an excellent and convenient article for camp use.
Tobacco Frances of the best quality and at an exceedingly low price.
Having also the best and most convenient machinery in town for the cutting of Tobacco Negro, those who require large quantities cut with quick despatch and well done will find it decidedly to their advantage to patronize this Establishment.
The "Tobacco de la Palma" can also be obtained at the following well known places, viz.:
Messrs. Barry & Walker, corner of Calle Defensa y Moreno.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1865.

Pp. Mauá and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p ⅋) per annum, which is liquidated ecet six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

LEA & PERRINS,
CELEBRATED
WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS to be the ONLY GOOD SAUCE and applicable to EVERY VARIETY of DISH

Extract of a LETTER from a MEDICAL GENTLEMAN at Madras to his Brother in WORCESTERSHIRE May, 1851.

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."

SEASONABLE NOTICE.

EXTENSIVE FRAUDS.

LEA AND PERRINS having discovered that several of the Foreign Markets have been supplied with counterfeit IMITATIONS of their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, the Labels of which closely resemble those of the genuine Sauce, and in one or more instances with the name of L. & P. forged; they have deemed it their duty to caution the public, and to request purchasers to see that the names of LEA & PERRINS are upon the "Wrapper, Label, Stopper and Bottle."

L. & P. further give notice that they will proceed against any one who may infringe upon their right, either by manufacturing or vending such counterfeits, and have instructed their correspondents in various parts of the world, to advise them of such infringements.

Wholesale and for exportation by the Proprietors Lea and Perrins, Worcester, England; Crosse and Blackwell, and other Oilmen and Merchants, London.

"THE STANDARD"—Printed and Published every morning at the "Standard" Printing Office, No. 74 Calle Belgrano, by the Proprietors and Editors, M. G. and E. T. MULHALL.
